VOL. III. NO. 297.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

OPINIONS OF CHICAGO'S FUTURE.

The current Field and Farm says: In a letter from Chicago December 4, Col. Lewis M. Clark says: "Governor Tanner has called an extra or special session of the Legislature, and it is confidently predicted that a racing bill will be passed, which will allow Washington Park to again open its gates, and Harlem and Hawthorne will fill up the other days."

Broadchurch, the Spirit of the Times Western correspondent, writes: "During a recent interview Secretary James Howard talked quite freely over the Chicago racing situation, and was measurably optimistic when a dip into the future was in order. He is a bit sanguine in connection with early helpful legislation in Illinois, as he assumes to think the coming special session will accomplish the desired end. In that case the racing glories of Washington Park will be revived in 1898, and that means a great deal, not only to Chicago, but for the whole West."

LEIGH'S FAILURE AS A BREEDER.

H. Eugene Leigh is at St. Louis for the purpose of transferring the body of his father to the family vault—an act characteristic of the virile turfman. In a talk with Mr. R. D. Collins of the Republic, DAILY RACING FORM's correspondent, Leigh said:

"My experience as a breeder cost me $200,000. The farm brought about what I paid for it, minus the $40,000 worth of improvements which I made. Hard times, bad luck and my own unfamiliarity with the business brought about my downfall as a breeder. Bramble was the only money-making stallion I had. I lost 30 of his stud colts in five years. This represented a loss of $60,000, in view of the fact that six Bramble weanlings realized over $12,000 at the recent Lexington sale. The youngster that Pat Dunne paid over $5,000 for is in my estimation, the best colt I ever bred. Barring accidents, I look for him to develop into a grand race horse. This colt is out of Lady Wayward, the dam of Carlsbad, an American Derby winner. William C. Whitney will probably have an extensive stable next season. He is the probable buyer of Hamburg."

TOD SLOAN'S AVERAGE THE BEST.

Tom Cannon's son, Mornington, again leads the jockeys of England. It is the fourth consecutive year to the able and mannerly young man's credit. In the list, the flamboyant, but clever Tod Sloan appears as James T. Sloan. His average of sixteen wins out of fifty-three mounts is the best. Here is the list:

ANOTHER TURF CONGRESS MEETING

The Turf Congress is to meet at Cincinnati next Monday to settle the rather dense situation into which some rather thick and hasty talk, rather than action, forced it—antagonism to the Jockey Club over the Pimlico extra racing. Here is the call:

I am directed by the President to call a meeting of the Turf Congress, to be held at the St. Nicholas Hotel, in Cincinnati, on Monday, December 20, at noon, for the purpose of considering the reinstatement of persons and horses that participated in the meeting at the Pimlico track after November 30, in violation of the Turf Congress by-laws, as well as to reinstate the track for permitting such meeting and also to hear report of Committee on Revision of Rules.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. W. Moore sold last week to P. Dunne the brown yearling colt, Prince Harry, by Harry O'Fallon—Nylephtha, for $1,500. This colt worked last month a quarter in 23½ seconds, and looks the race horse all over.

DAILY RACING FORM publishes the table of the Dallas, Tex., winners, because the information may be of value as bearing on the New Orleans meeting, at which Texan horses always cut a sharp figure.

Rey el Santa Anita's roguery is now confirmed. Mr. Croker so branded him after a long trial in England and he has performed as rogues perform before and since his English trip.

Jockey Mara, who was expelled at Hawthorne some years ago, has been landed by the Steeplechase and Hunt Association for pulling Mars Chan at Washington November 13.

Phil Dwyer has offered Jimmy Michael, the bicycle rider, a place as jockey in his stable any time the midget chooses to go in training and fit himself for the task.

Ed Corrigan has in his stable at San Francisco Pat Dunne's colts, Captive and Stentor.

*Coupled in betting.

Winner—B. c. by Morello—Deception.

Start perfect. Won easily; second in a hard drive. Sybaris was far the best. Valenciennne began slowly, closed strong and can be watched with profit. The Dipper can be similarly tabbed as favoring a route. Mainbar was interfered with at start and on first turn. He closed strongly, as if favoring a distance. Watch this colt. He is most promising. Flushington can be put on record as best on hard or sloppy going. Moringa was badly ridden and closed stoutly from a bad beginning. Zapata was shut off at start and on first turn and was coming at finish. Throw out Finnegan's race. Hertha was badly ridden.

Overweights—Flushington, 3 pounds; Cima, 2½.

3229 SECOND RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:02, 1:08½.

Winner—Ch. g. 4, by Hanover—Blessing.

Start good. Won easily. Montgomery was best in the going. He outclassed the lot, as they ran. Tea Rose ran to the notch. Rubicon seemed to be at sea on the track. He was short, though he closed at the end. May W is best on a hard track. She is good and had an easy race. Watch her. The other two belong in lower class company.

Scratched—Miss Lynch, 102; Lucky Dog, 105; Monitor, 102.

Overweights—May W, 3 pounds; Una Que Amo, 5; Lolo, 1.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Deceiver—Billetta.

Start good. Won in a hard drive of five. Barr was best and heavily backed. He was lucky and well ridden too. Quick ran a keen and good race. He was unlucky. The interference he met with on the first turn was serious. Dream was well ridden. She needs strong handling; was closing stoutly at the finish. Bernardillo is a bad colt. He had no help from his jockey and was coming at the close. Gwynn made up ground. The Plutocrat is best in hard or sloppy going. He was eased up at end. Pry was short.

Scratched—Collins, 102; Salvado, 107; Yankee Doodle, 105; Schiller, 105.

Fonsavannah has had too much of it. He was sore, too, and badly ridden. Throw out his race. Rey El Santa Anita had an aggravated case of the sulks.

Winner—B. c. by Salvator—Iris.

Start good. Won in a gallop. Rucker did not need his luck to win. He outclassed his field. He was short, too. Lee was unlucky. He ran his race. Was interfered with at start and has not gone back. Luis was hampered at start and on first turn and eased up at finish. Yule seemed to have dulled. She was not well ridden. Koran, after showing much speed, collapsed in the final contention. Mordecai was out for his health. Watch Greenback. He was in too keen company and short.
